

Welcome to PACT

Thank you for requesting information on adoption from PACT. This Guide contains information on our services and I hope you will find it interesting and informative.

PACT has a strong track record in placing children from diverse backgrounds with families that share their heritage and culture. PACT families are from all walks of life, communities and cultures. We recruit potential adopters from a diverse range of ethnic, racial and cultural groups to reflect the children who need to be adopted in the UK.

If, having read this information, you feel the time is right to find out more, please call us on 0300 456 4800 or email enquiries@pactcharity.org.

We very much hope that PACT will be the right agency for you.

Lorna Hunt, Service Director
